Kevin Solecki was born and raised in Warren, Michigan and started taking accordion lessons at the age of 6. At the early age of 10, he was playing on radio and television stations in Detroit and at 17 he joined the nationally known polka band, the Polka Family Band, traveling extensively with them around the country. Kevin relocated to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where he currently resides and after 10 years with the Polka Family Band, decided to break away and focus on a solo career.

Over the past two and a half decades, Kevin has performed all over the United States as well as internationally. Some of his career highlights include performing on some of the world's top cruise ships, a PBS Television documentary on the polka, a GRAMMY nomination for his 2005 debut album Solecktions, guest soloist at major accordion conventions, a personal invitation from Harry Connick Jr. to assist at a local performance Harry was doing in Pittsburgh, and an appearance on a January 2022 episode of Emmy Award Winning PBS children' television show Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood.

Kevin has to his credit three CDs: Solecktions released in 2005, Solecktive Sounds released in 2007 and Romantic Melodies released in 2010. Kevin enjoys being one of the country's most versatile and busy accordionists who can be found performing at almost every event and venue that you can name. If this isn't enough, he also owns and operates his own accordion repair and sales shop Carnegie Accordion Company where he is an authorized Roland accordion dealer and also sells his own 100-percent Italian-made acoustic accordion brand Solloni.

SFAC May Meeting Highlights

Pamela Tom

On a delightful Sunday in May, our Club hosted an afternoon of accordion music starring our own talented members at the Chetcuti Community Center. We had our largest number of volunteers ever, with 12 wonderful accordionists playing a potpourri of music genres ranging from classics of the 19th century to opera, jazz standards, and contemporary original compositions. The refreshment break at 3:00 PM included a special birthday cake to honor Ed Massolo, who will celebrate his 99th birthday next month. Mike Zampiceni did the honors of brightening the room with his renditions of Happy Birthday and For He's a Jolly Good Fellow.

As the meeting progressed, we learned that it was Peter Di Bono's 80th birthday. Ahead of his solos, Scott Anderson graciously led the group in an encore sing-along of Happy Birthday. He followed with two familiar tunes among accordionists: Two Guitars (traditional Russian) and La Donna E Mobile (G. Verdi).

Ed Massolo, who led the project years ago to have the SFAC sign created, which we proudly display on the sidewalk to welcome attendees at our monthly meetings and events, WOWed the audience with his skillful interpretations of Penthouse Serenade (Will Jason and Val Burton), Light and Shadow (Paolo Pizzigoni), and Innamorata (Harry Warren and Jack Brooks).

Ray Celentano, who remarkably plays so well by ear, performed his arrangements of the country western tune Crazy (Willie Nelson) and I'll Never Fall in Love Again (Burt Bacharach) from the 1968 musical Promises, Promises.

Sergiy Turchyn, presented his music with European flair. He started with a little French waltz, called Retour des Hirondelles (R. Trognée and B. Pagano) and then an Italian tune, La Danza (G. Rossini, 1835) from Soirées Musicales (1830–1835), in tarantella Napoletana time.

Continuing with Italian music, Reno Di Bono performed two Italian pop favorites, Time to Say Goodbye (F. Sartori) and Volare (D. Modugno and F. Migliacci).

Via Zoom, Edward Spondike performed two melodic original compositions: Corona Suite (3/4 time after an introduction in 2/4 time) is reminiscent of a European musette-tuned waltz while Purple Haze (yes, same title as the Hendrix song, but a completely different composition in 4/4 time) reminds listeners of a mellow, modern American jazz interpretation. Nice job, Ed! We hope you will share additional compositions that you created for the accordion.

Also via Zoom, Pamela Tom performed two fast-paced classics, Melody in F (A. Rubinstein, 1835) and The Prelude and Toreador from the opera Carmen (G. Bizet, 1873).

The opera genre continued with the duo of Paul Aebersold and Shirley Lee playing two tunes: Sull'aria...che soave zeffiretto from The Marriage of Figaro (W. A. Mozart, 1786) and Duo des Fleurs (The Flower Duet) from Lakme (L. Delibes, 1883).

SFAC May Meeting Highlights

Pamela Tom

Accordion pro Mike Zampiceni serenaded the audience with Latin and jazz tunes. He played a lovely paso doble El Chico de Miguel (M. Corino, Joseph Zampiceni Publications), The Lady is a Tramp from the Rodgers and Hart musical Babes in Arms (R. Rodgers, 1937), and Samba de Orfeo (L. Bonfá and A. Maria).

Reigning in the classics for the afternoon, Ken Schwartz performed a quick tune: The Waltz in D-flat major, Op. 64, No. 1, aka Valse du petit chien, popularly known as Minute Waltz (F. Chopin, 1847).

Maestro Lou Jacklich performed his own impressive, advanced concert arrangements of Grand Canyon Suite Medley (F. Grofé) and Dance of the Hours from the Opera La Gioconda (A. Ponchielli, 1876)

A tremendous thank you and bravo to the performers who took time preparing and sharing their music!

How to Celebrate National Accordion Awareness Month

Pamela Tom

1. Attend a live or Zoom accordion club meeting, concert and/or festival.
2. Buy an accordion album on streaming platforms such as Amazon, Spotify, Apple, etc.
3. Watch an accordion event on Facebook or other social media and donate to the accordionist.
4. Join accordion groups featured on social media.
5. Treat yourself to an accordion and lessons.
6. Practice your accordion.
7. Call other accordionists and musicians and have a jam session.
8. Plan to visit an accordion exhibit or museum.
9. Read accordion news publications such as Accordions.com and AccordionsUSA.com .
10. Join local and national (ATG and AAA) accordion clubs and meet others who love the accordion.
11. Wear your SFAC T-shirt or other accordion-themed clothing and accessories.
12. Volunteer to serve on a SFAC committee by contacting: info@saccordionclub.com.

The San Francisco Accordion Club Goes to San Francisco!

Festa Coloniale Italiana Accordion Festival

Sunday, June 4, 2023

by Ken Schwartz & Rosemary Busher

It was one of those picture-perfect days in The City to to enjoy Italian cuisine, culture, and, of course, accordion music! The Festa Coloniale Italiana Accordion Festival was sponsored by The San Francisco Italian Athletic Club Foundation at Washington Square in North Beach. On very short notice, our Club was invited to participate; we rose to the occasion and had a great time spreading accordion love.

What could be more perfect than an abundance of pizza, pasta, beverages, and continuous accordion performances throughout the day? And, our Club was there with an exhibit that featured our poster, two accordions, a live “accordionist” performing at the booth, and over 30 pieces of other display items: historical photographs, some sheet music, and the historical work The Golden Age of the Accordion.

The SFAC exhibit was extremely well attended, so much, that we were non-stop throughout the entire day. We estimate at least 100 visited, perhaps more, with many interested on-lookers who asked all sorts of good questions. Everything from "what's it made out of?" "how heavy is it?" "what's with ALL those buttons!?" and our favorite: "do you guys give group lessons or are there teachers in San Francisco?" In addition, we brought along two accordions and pictured on the next page are a few who were open to giving it a try! Rosemary coached 4 adorable youngsters (and one mom) in a quick introduction to their first ever squeeze, and we hope it won't be their last! They were terrific sports about it. In summary, it was a perfect outreach event to exemplify our stated mission "to enhance, promote and stimulate an appreciation for the accordion within the membership and throughout the general public."

Launching this effort was Pamela Tom, who was the spark to get us in touch with the festival organizers as well as working tirelessly with Ken Schwartz to create the poster (12 iterations, no less!); Rosemary Busher, for set-up (you've seen those tablecloths before!) and bringing along the two accordions, the poster, and other historical items. A parking pass made it possible to deliver in the city! Monica Ambalal was also at the booth as a terrific accordion ambassador. And of course, SFAC President Ken Schwartz added rapid communication and experience at creating an effective poster with fantastic content he actually had on hand. We thank those who helped and look forward to returning next year, June 1-2, 2024, so please mark your calendars now!

WELCOME TO THE SAN FRANCISCO ACCORDION CLUB
THE WORLD'S FIRST ACCORDION CLUB!

The San Francisco Accordion Club is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization whose purpose is to promote and stimulate an appreciation for the accordion within the membership and throughout the general public. We have members from California and across the USA, all with a common interest to enjoy fine accordion music. We sponsor featured events and members are encouraged to participate in jam sessions and play individually in an informal, friendly setting.

- ACCORDION FACTS
- The accordion is the Official Musical Instrument of the City of San Francisco!
 - The modern piano accordion we know today was introduced to America in the early 1900's by brothers, Guido and Pietro Deiro, who were the leading accordionists of their day. Where? San Francisco, of course!
 - Pietro Deiro's biography stated that the San Francisco Accordion Club was "the only one of its kind in the world, during that period."
- "During a series of concerts given at the San Francisco Panama Exposition, Pietro became the idol of that great cosmopolitan city and, as a remembrance of his stay, he played and conducted at several concerts given by the San Francisco Accordion Club - the only one of its kind in the world, during that period."
- Cited in "Pietro Deiro Complete Accordion Method" (1951).

Guerrini accordions were manufactured in San Francisco. (Pictured circa 1947-1949.)

SFAC MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

Robert Cooperstein

As a recently retired professor, I ran around in something of an egghead circuit for a few decades, and am used to rubbing shoulders with talented academes. But I am continually amazed by the versatility of the multi-talented musicians and fellow-travelers who populate the SFAC: yes, uber-accomplished accordionists for sure, but also authors, composers, pilots, craftsmen, engineers, professors, mental health counselors, psychics, lawyers, doctors, police officers, environmentalists, and so many more vocations and avocations!

Our newest new member, Sara Gronquist, humbly describes herself professionally as a “landscape architect”, but in fact she provides construction documentation and project management through a Berkeley-based landscape design firm that works with commercial and private residential clients. She says she “loves swing, tango and gypsy jazz. I'm also a vocalist and guitarist, and picked up accordion to cover those jam circles when there are just too many guitars! I play farmers' markets and cafes with friends when we can all find a date we are free.” Wish I had been aware of her playing around the East Bay before leaving with Elaine for Florida!

Another very recent new member, Melanie Spiller, of San Francisco, is a multi-instrumentalist (voice, harp, flute, psaltery, dulcimer, guitar, ukulele, African drums, lyre, etc.), new to the accordion, having inherited a beautifully maintained Contello (made approximately 1939) last October. Her earliest memory of music is of family friends Art and Ursula Gobets playing guitar and accordion in the living room and singing in about a dozen languages. It's Ursula's accordion that Melanie has inherited and is learning to play. She certainly is an optimist, hoping to pick up the accordion without too much trouble, and says she will be attending SFAC meetings without playing until she is more confident. Melanie is also a writer, editor, and musician in the Bay Area, specializing in music history, technology, and music notation. Her book, Musical Innovators came out in 2020 and is a light-hearted yet thoroughly researched history of the people, inventions, and events that changed music from prehistory through the end of the Renaissance in Asia, Africa, the Middle East, the New World, and Europe.

We would also like to welcome back an SFAC member that many of you know well, Jean Moshofsky (San Francisco) who had taken a leave of absence from the Club. In addition to having served on the SFAC Board in the past, Jean is yet another multi-talented Club member. Having started out working on a psychology degree, her life "took a left turn", immersing her in psychic work. She has been doing readings for over thirty years. In the early 2000s, Jean added yet another profession, educating youngsters about gardening. SFGATE wrote about her in 2013, "She teaches gardening at Lakeshore Elementary in the Sunset district. Second graders through fifth graders learn plant identification and propagation; help with digging, weeding, pruning and watering; and encounter raccoons, ducks, opossums, bumblebees and worms." Jean, save some time for the accordion milieu!

Pamela Lister were band members while Gail Campanella was the ensemble conductor for Carnival of Venice by Niccolò Paganini and The Second Waltz by Dmitri Shostakovich.

Get ready for the 2023 Festival!

La Plaza Park, August 19 & 20, 2023

The SFAC will be hosting our own canopy, a place where our Club members can gather, hang out, mingle with passers-by, and of course enjoy the world-class accordianists on the 2 stages. We will have accordion-themed figurines, oodles of sheet music, and sundry items available for a donation.

The July issue of our newsletter will publish the schedule and full list of performers, including our good friend, the amazing Cory Pesaturo!

The SFAC as always will be involved in a student fundraiser the first evening, August 19, at Church of the Oaks. And if you have NOT attained the age of 19, you are eligible to apply for a scholarship to be awarded at the Cotati Accordion Student Stage. The SFAC will be offering a special "Lou Jacklich" $500 scholarship. The deadline for applying is July 1. For questions, call Sheri Mignano at 707-772-9816, or or email CotatiAccordionStudentStage@yahoo.com.

Not Just Oompah! Workshop to Feature Courtney Von Drehle

Laura Niland

Not Just Oompah! is pleased to announce a new accordion workshop with Courtney Von Drehle, to be held via ZOOM on July 25-27 from 5-7:30 PM CST. Courtney is an Emmy-Nominated composer and master accordionist. His accordion workshop title, Have Accordion, Will Travel!, is designed to expand your repertoire and skills with a musical variety program that covers three continents in three days while learning the elements that make each style... and of course, to learn some great songs on the journey. NO travel documents or custom checks involved!

Registration: $100 includes all workshop materials delivered in PDF format, plus recordings to be made of each presentation for later viewing. Register online at <https://notjustoompah.org/> where our new website will be ready by the first week of June. Orders for T-Shirt Personalized with SFAC and Your Name!

Joseph Martin

Many of you may have seen my new T-shirt that I've been wearing to recent meetings. I am a professional graphic designer and have created my own, unique club T-shirt with my personalized artwork. The image is not an official club image, but many of you may enjoy these unique shirts, so I am offering these shirts as a personal service, independent of the club. Please direct all questions and communications to me, not to the club.

Summer is coming, and you can get a T-shirt printed with "San Francisco Accordion Club" to keep cool, or just for fun. These full-color shirts come in all sizes, and you can have your name printed on the front. Place orders by June 18th.

There are two different shaped images (rectangular and circle) in three different colors (Cobalt Blue, Dark Chocolate Brown, or Black). The shirts are "Direct to Film" prints that are heat applied onto the shirts and customized for each person. You can choose the image, image color, and name on front.

The cost per shirt depends on the customization. Budget $30 per shirt, PLUS tax and shipping. Any residuals from shirt orders will be donated to the SFAC. This is a great price for a full-color, customized front and back shirt with your name included.

SFAC will have quite the presence at the club picnic on July 30 in San Mateo and at this year's Cotati Accordion Festival.
